FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 1, 2008

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 1, 2008 – The second annual Grand Rapids All-Pro Football Camp will be held at Houseman Field on Friday, July 11th. Former Grand Rapids Public School gridiron standouts Terna Nande (Creston), David Harris (Ottawa Hills), Kelly Butler (Union), Carlton Brewster (Creston), and Rueben Riley (Creston) will be on hand to teach area youth football skills and fundamentals. “It is important to all of us to give back” said Terna Nande. “We truly enjoy coming back to Grand Rapids and being involved with kids and making a positive impact on their lives”.

The camp is being sponsored by a grant from the National Football League (NFL) that Nande helped write. The grant requires that the camp be free of charge to all participants. Space is still available at the camp, however, you must register prior to July 11th by calling the Grand Rapids Parks and Recreation Department at 616-456-3696. Camp details are listed below:
